 - Wanda Lamprecht from BPW Minnesota joined on Zoom for her first meeting.

11:35 AM (MDT)

- Topic for discussion will be "Reconnecting Women Across the Nation"
 - Sandy – Bringing the value of international. Be cohesive as a group and working together. If we are reconnected, our voice can be stronger. If we have a stronger base and we will have more im
 - Kathy – Working on her elevator pitch. The international aspect of it is definitely important. We're almost 100 years old and in over 100 countries. It always comes down to "what do I do next?" We're either going to embrace the new member or lose them. Each chapter has its own culture and agenda. A board meeting is dry and might not bring interest.
 - Titi – We are focusing on the millennials. They know how to use the media and would prefer to communicate online. We have to capture them online and with the local clubs. The things that they can do on their own when they have personal time that is not part of their work schedule. Mentoring and Leadership & Learning on the website. The Key to Achievements is very important way to grow new members and if we can make that available online. You need to inspire them and have them achieve something and developing.
 - Kathy – The mentoring committee, leadership & learning, and the Momentum Club. Maybe we could take the first module about NFBPWC and launch it on a Zoom meeting. As people become members we could have it available monthly for new members. Let's keep that in mind and we'll go over that 1st module. Let's get that put together.
 - Megan – Include the opportunity to do it on their own time.
 - Titi – All the affiliates and clubs should join the training. We should share the series of training that we will have going on... she will sit down and write it down. We want to attract people to the program. Anything that shows development and/or achievement. Set-up referrals and forums on website to utilize it as a resource. Put it on the forum and request that people participate.
 - Sandy – Having it out there on the website, they could have it as part of a meeting. It should be for both old and new. Maybe L&L could see how to do that. Colorado, North Carolina, Michigan, and Pennsylvania are all looking at how to join to be part of the organization as a club. Matter of bylaws and approval from members to join.
